

What is a 'some..., others...' sentence?

This is when you have two parts of a sentence that explain two sides to something. This is separated in the middle by a comma:

Examples

Some like to have pineapple on their pizza, others believe that it should never be put on them.

Some people have a fear of heights, others get a thrill from tackling them.

Some find doing yoga to be a boring activity, others find it exceptionally relaxing.

Now it's your turn!

Now come up with your own examples of 'some, others' sentences. Come up with at least 3